

ies

Lancaster County is one of the fastest growing counties in South Carolina. Its population has grown 14% since 2010.

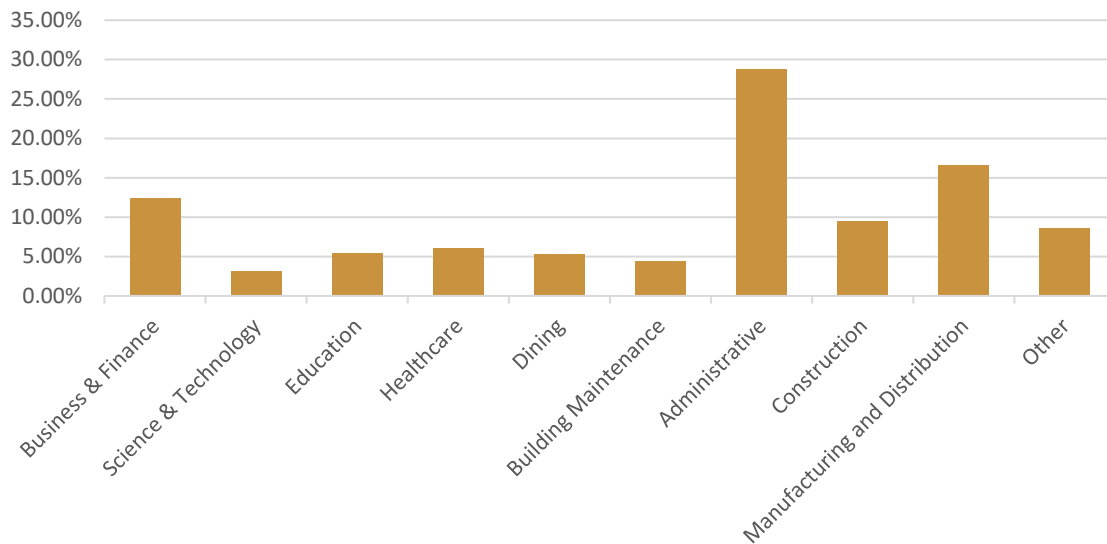

County Population by Age

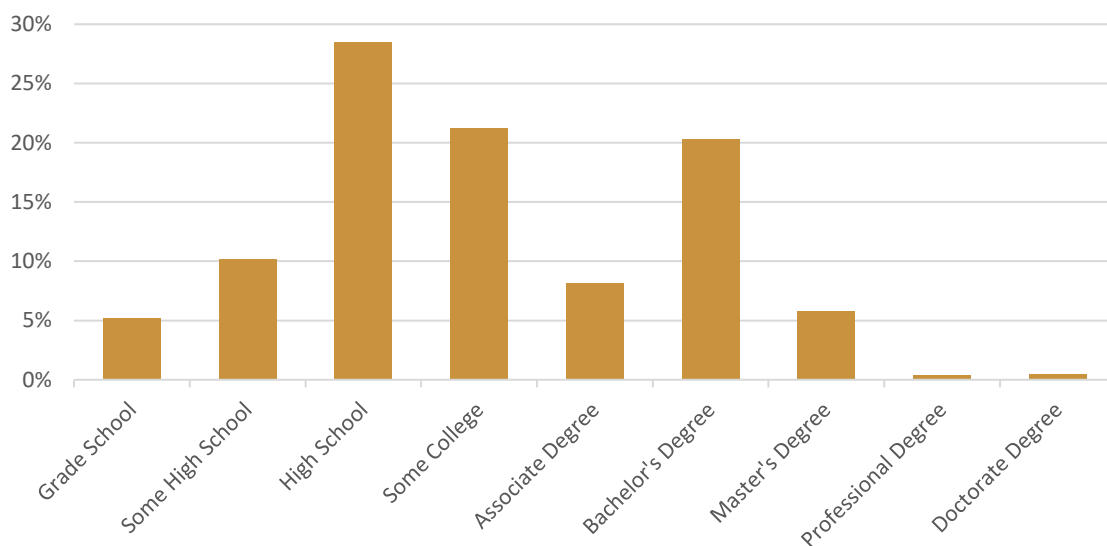

Workforce

Lancaster County, South Carolina is home to an eager workforce that brings a solid work ethic, high productivity, and extensive manufacturing and professional/technical skills.

County Population by Occupation

County Population by Education*

*Highest level of education for county residents age 25+

Cost of Living

In addition to offering a remarkably robust package of incentives to growing companies, Lancaster County and South Carolina are consistently recognized as having favorable business climates thanks to low overall business costs and a low cost of living.

There's a golden opportunity for your business and our team is ready to help you discover it. Contact us today, and we'll put our expertise to work for your success!

Jamie Gilbert
 Director of Economic Development
 Phone: 803.286.3633
 Email: jgilbert@lancastercountysc.net

Regional population and regional workforce data provided by StatsAmerica.
 County growth rate provided by the US Census Bureau.
 All other data provided by Sperling's.
 May 2017